

Waldorf Education Leader

Welcome to Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School!

Thank you for your interest in the position of Waldorf Education Leader. You are passionate about Waldorf education and want to be a leader and enabler of an independent Steiner school from Playgroup to Upper School in Auckland's Waitākere Ranges. You care about community, transparency, collaboration and the Anthroposophical impulse behind Waldorf education. We would love to hear from you.

This Waldorf Education Leader's role is to ensure, together with the College of Teachers, high quality Waldorf/Steiner education for all tamariki (children) and rangatahi (young people) by working collaboratively with all staff, the Trust and the parent body, fostering and enabling leadership, courage and kindness throughout the organisation.

The role requires a commitment to Rudolf Steiner's indications for Waldorf Education and the image of education being a cultural activity.

The Waldorf Education Leader must have, or be able to obtain, a current practising certificate issued by the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand.

About our school / kura

Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School is an independent, private, co-educational Waldorf school offering education from playgroup to Class 12 (Year 13). It is located in Auckland's Waitākere Ranges on 29 hectares of native bush bordering the Manukau Harbour. It is a safe, peaceful and natural learning haven only minutes from the vibrant Titirangi village and 30 minutes from downtown Auckland.

The school has a roll of around 250 students from Nursery through to Class 12 (Year 13) – with capacity to grow -, a playgroup, 30 staff and teachers and a diverse mix of children with families from all around the world.

Community spirit, on which our school was founded 36 years ago, is alive within an engaged community. Parents help with festivals, fundraisers, working bees and class trips and camps.

Interested in learning more?

Further information about Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School can be found on our website: <https://titirangi.steiner.school.nz/>

Download the position description here.

How to apply

To apply for the role, please send your CV and a cover letter that tells us what you could bring to the role.

We encourage you to bring your authentic self and unique perspectives and share how you could enable the teachers and community to support a truly inspiring centre for Waldorf education in West Auckland.

If you are drawn to this role, we welcome your application, even if you are not experienced in all areas of the position description.

This vacancy will remain open until it is filled. We encourage early applications.

Please send your application to: vacancy@titirangi.steiner.school.nz

Start date

The position commences on Wednesday 17 January 2024. An alternative start date may be negotiated.

Operations Manager

Welcome to Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School!

Thank you for your interest in the position of Operations Manager.

You are deeply motivated to support the operational success of Waldorf education in an independent Steiner school from playgroup to high school on a special piece of land in Auckland's Waitākere Ranges. We would love to hear from you.

The Operations Manager is responsible for the financial and administrative running of the school, and promoting the school to maintain a roll of 350 – 400 students from Nursery to Class 12.

About our school / kura

Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School is an independent, private, co-educational Waldorf school offering education from playgroup to Class 12 (Year 13). It is located in Auckland's Waitākere Ranges on 29 hectares of native bush bordering the Manukau Harbour. It is a safe, peaceful and natural learning haven only minutes from the vibrant Titirangi village and 30 minutes from downtown Auckland.

The school has a roll of around 250 students from Nursery through to Class 12 (Year 13) – with capacity to grow, a playgroup, 30 staff and teachers and a diverse mix of children with families from all around the world.

Community spirit, on which our school was founded 36 years ago, is alive within an engaged community. Parents help with festivals, fundraisers, working bees and class trips and camps.

Interested in learning more?

Further information about Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School can be found on our website: <https://titirangi.steiner.school.nz/>

Download the position description here.

How to apply

To apply for the role, please send us your CV and a cover letter that tells us what you could bring to the role.

We encourage applicants to bring their authentic self and unique perspectives and share how they could support our teachers and community to create a truly inspiring centre for Waldorf education in West Auckland.

We welcome applications from those who are drawn to this role, even if you are not experienced in all areas of the job description.

This vacancy will remain open until it is filled. We encourage early applications.

Please send your application to: vacancy@titirangi.steiner.school.nz

Start date

The position commences on Wednesday 17 January 2024. An alternative start date may be negotiated.

2024 Class 1 and Class 3 teachers

We are seeking experienced and creative Class 1 and Class 3 teachers for 2024, with an interest and/or experience in Steiner/Waldorf education. Ideally, the teacher will stay with the class throughout their school journey through to Class 7 or 8 (Year 8 or 9).

Our ideal applicant will be strong both academically and artistically and have a high level of expertise in meeting the needs of a diverse range of learners. They will be able to foster a love of learning in children and create a positive and healthy social dynamic within the class.

New Zealand teacher registration is required.

Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School is located in Auckland's Waitakere ranges on 29 hectares of native bush bordering the Manukau Harbour. It is a safe, peaceful and natural learning haven only minutes from vibrant Titirangi village and 30 minutes from downtown Auckland.

Titirangi Rudolf Steiner School is an independent Steiner School that offers education from playgroup to high school.

We seek experienced teachers with an interest in Waldorf education to deepen the knowledge of our body of teachers and to contribute to the development of Steiner education in an independent environment.

The school has a roll of around 280 students from Nursery through to Class 12 (Year 13).